Experience / Portfolio

- Snowblock Studios January 2019 – Present:

  - Vandersur Reformas (http://vandersurreformas.com): A business website for a client, a construction company based in Spain.
  - Sean Leitch (https://seanjl.github.io/SeanLeitch/): My personal portfolio site, built from scratch using HTML, CSS and the AOS library.
  - Snowblock (https://seanjl.github.io/SeanLeitch/): My business site where I sell websites, built from scratch using HTML, CSS and the AOS library.
  - Sean Leitch Blog (https://seanjl.github.io/SeanLeitchBlog/): My blog about web development and personal development, built from scratch using HTML, CSS and the AOS library.

Skills

HTML & CSS: I can write clean, readable, HTML and CSS. My knowledge in design allows me to create user-friendly pages which are accessible and informative.

Image & Video Editing: I can edit images and create graphics using GIMP, Inkscape and Photoshop. I also know how to edit videos.

Bilingual: I'm a native and proficient speaker of both English and Spanish, allowing me to communicate and work with lots of people.

Communication: I can effectively summarize, explain and communicate information and work with others.

Disciplined: I strive to learn, work and develop not only websites, but also myself. This translates into being a better worker.

Personality: I'm confident, cooperative, creative, able to listen, a persistent learner and good at intercultural competence and establishing interpersonal relationships.
